Winter Friday/Saturday 2010 Course!!Effective Teaching: Improving Classroom Instruction

Improving Student Performance-Better Thinkers, Better Citizens, Better Students. Participants will develop deeper understandings of teaching strategies in terms of the "science" and "art" within the craft. Teachers will access curriculum standards and develop ideas on assessment (science) and instructional practices (art) that will actively engage their students in the learning process. Participants will access, apply and design instructional strategies based upon the work of Robert Marzano's Classroom Instruction That Works. Participants will analyze and apply instructional strategies along the "content_process" continuum. Course includes 6 hours fieldwork. NYS Learning Standard: ALL.
